Casal de Tralhariz is one of those places! You will experience the quietness of a country house filled with ancient memories and surrounded by pine forest, vineyards and olive groves.

Here you can live the atmosphere of a village in Alto Douro in an accommodation with all the comfort of any urban house.

With your partner, family or by yourself you will find the sophisticated elegance combined with the rural landscapes of Alto Douro.

Our traditional, freshly cooked and delicious food is exquisitely coupled with our regional wines.

Walk to our Chapel of Bom de Jesus de Tralhariz and be overwhelmed with the landscape where rivers Douro and Tua fuse and the surrounding interwoven hills.

Amid two World Heritage spots (Alto Douro and Côa Valley), looking out a river junction, surrounded by the harsh silhouette of the vineyards and the rebellious pine forest and in the presence of dolmens and ancient hermitages, Casal de Tralhariz is...a timeless, irresistible spot, where you wish to linger and come back to.

The Casa do Sobreiro is a manor whose origins remote to the sixteen century, built in the center of a 160.000m² land area which includes a 140.000m² kiwi plantation, two marvelous lagoons, a park and some beautiful gardens. The Casa do Sobreiro main building was rebuilt in 1989 due to its precarious state, all its original layout and structure were kept, the surrounding land fields once used to cultivate many agricultural products where then changed to a kiwi plantation.
