The Mosteiro do Pombeiro Estate, situated right in the heart of the Sousa Valley, faces the majestic Pombeiro Monastery, built in the 19th Century, with a clear Romanic Benedictine character. This is a 6 hectare, rustic property, which produces wine, kiwis and raspberries along with animal breeding.

Between the municipalities of Guimarães, which is World Heritage, and Amarante, also with an elevated historic value, the Mosteiro Estate disposes of an interesting ensemble of constructions around an enormous threshing-floor, offering a superb view of the valley and the monastery. Without a doubt, this is an immensely mystical site to spend some fantastic days of relaxation and to discover the region's rich heritage in terms of art and landscape.
